

Energy Pyramids: Channel Messages about the 10 yards Energy Pyramid Channel Message from Horus at 16:25h, 5.9.1999

"The great Energy Pyramid changes everything. It has initiated a signal, which will go around the whole earth in approximately 8 months. Every being is confronted with it. It's a kind of feedback signal from a high developed spirit, which will help to orientate. It's an orientation, an interface between mankind, technology and nature. You will have to think over your philosophy to get a new attitude towards life. This is valid for all and everybody. The sooner you are ready, the easier you may go on. Every person buying a small model of the energy pyramids of Horus supports the great project and uses the creative impulses of the 10 yards high model.

The great Energy Pyramid is a sign of a precisely directed spirit. This energy comes out of the outer part of the pyramid (Yin). But it also contains Yang, the female element, it's the inner part. The inner pyramid is a cup which exudes the energy of the earth.

Quite a lot of people could feel through the early year of 1999 a flow of negative energy. What you feel as negative energy, what obstructs you for a few months, is actually only an obstruction of your new feelings by forces and beings that are now unable to understand the new signal. They don't succeed to find a new orientation. They are annoyed about themselves. However, the old rules are no longer valid, because it was set up a new one!

People must learn to listen inside themselves and there they will find the new signal. Tell people, they should be aware and trust themselves. The new orientation is already on its way for some years. But the signal of the great energy pyramid was of crucial importance, to set a new and unique impulse in the confusion of opinions, that pulls to much attention on itself. Enjoy what is happening here. If you don't touch the essence of being, the cosmic mind won't talk to you. If you succeed, happiness will be your price. The Energy Pyramids are keys to the origin forces of cosmic life. Get rid of the old vibrations of former lifetimes, and get close to the new vibration of the cosmic mind which can inspire your life, by the use of the Energy Pyramids."

The Universal Law

1. Everything is contained in everything
2. Everything is mirrored in everything
3. Everything is created out of the light

The 4 New Commandments

Purity of thy soul is the 1. commandment
Love to the next is the 2. commandment
Mercy with the evil is the 3. commandment
Righteousness on Earth and in heaven is the 4. commandment

Righteousness means that we take part in the creation of new laws and legal standards, because today we are ruled by legal standards which have been created by others before us.

We shall take part to create new laws and standards which concern the contact of the people among each other.

A breathing exercise from Horus for us (16.6.1993)

breath in. The light is within you breath out. and you are in the light breath in. The light shines within you breath out. The light shines out of me breath in. I inhale light breath out. Light exhales me

Horus:

"Life on Earth is a tender blossom of creation. It eternally changes. We have planned it in large periods of time. Life here on Earth strives for thoroughness. In order to realize this goal, patience is needed. Your concern is to preserve the beauty of creation. This cannot succeed as long as fear abases you. Recognize the meaning of your own feelings! The purity of the soul is to be caused only through your own spirit.

Purity of the spirit needs enough energy in order to be able to realize the ideals that a human being carries in himself. Only with the energy that comes from your own center, the source of strength can be activated which can make life on Earth livable. You deliver the energy that preserves the Earth, and which lets you live here.

Recognize the peculiarity of my message! Until now, thriving and undoing was laid into a God's hand. Now I say that you are the source!

And the energy pyramids which I gave to you will help you along with the amount of energy necessary for the realisation of the goals of your life."
