

The positive effects of the Energypyramids® in relation to our thoughts and development of human being.

"Dear Mats,

I have a question.... I feel the Pyramids are broadcasting our thoughts and feelings to the Universe helping us to co create and empower what we have in our minds.

What happens when people with lot of negativity or with a poorly developed consciousness get in contact with the pyramid for a period of time? are the negative thoughts or feelings empowered too?

I also wanted to let you know I'm so happy to have listened (to my heart) and be guided to the Pyramids!!!

During all this year, I've been (and I am) in a deep transformation process, unfolding the truth of my Soul, surrendering to Divine Guidance, following the path of the Heart.

The model A just came in the right moment to help and speed up the process.

much light Cecilia Plaza (the Spanish girl)

Dear Cecilia (yes I remember the Spanish girl very well ;-)), thank you very much for your information, well done, that is exactly what the pyramids really are for: They create places where positive thoughts are enforced.

Negative thoughts with a deeper vibration can not enter the pyramid, so it can not be misused. If anybody is affected by voodoo or black magic the pyramids help protecting. The negative thoughts will be reflected like a mirror and are sent back to the sender like a boomerang in just one second....

Even if somebody really bad buys a pyramid, it reflects his own doing and helps him to change positively.

So wherever you put a pyramid, you create a neutral zone where positive processes are enforced.

C'est une grande aide pour prendre ta vie en main!

I am very happy to hear that you feel these effects so fast.

with light Mats

Dear Mats,

Wow! Now I understand the other effect, thanks for clearing it up. The pyramid acts like a mirror for our own negative patterns in order we can change them!! I just love that!

This is what I was experiencing these last days, whenever I was getting into a negative mood I was quickly drawn to question it causes. Even though I'm usually aware about my mental and emotional process, the Pyramid makes this faster.

Amazing.

I'm happy to share this with you and I hope we might be able to meet someday again around the Pyramids. Your presence emanates so much light and harmony, being a human evidence that Horus is right and Pyramids really works ;-) love and blessings Cecilia"
